

AccuData Integrated Marketing, Inc.MASTER LIST RENTAL DATA USE RESELLER AGREEMENT

This Master List Rental Data Use Reseller Agreement (“Agreement”) is made this _____ day of _____, 20____, (the “Effective Date”) by and between AccuData Integrated Marketing, Inc., a Washington corporation, located at 5220 Summerlin Commons Boulevard, Suite 200, Fort Myers, Florida 33907 (“AccuData”) and _____, a _____ corporation, located at, _____ (“Reseller”).

- 1) Background: AccuData procures data from various national databases, which is derived from various sources. Reseller wishes to obtain certain list counts, order marketing lists, data products and related services, and other data selected from various AccuData sources and third party vendors of AccuData (collectively, the “Data”). This Agreement governs the terminable, revocable, non-exclusive, non-transferrable, limited license of the Data by AccuData to Reseller and the strictly limited use of the Data provided to Reseller to sell to its customers (“End Users”). The Data to be provided to Reseller and the pricing for use of such Data is determined on a per order basis as set forth in writing or on any applicable addendum to this Agreement, as amended from time to time and incorporated herein by reference. All pricing is subject to change at any time in the sole discretion of AccuData.
- 2) Term and Termination: The initial term of this Agreement shall be one (1) year from the Effective Date (the “Initial Term”) and, unless either party provides written notice of termination thirty (30) days prior to the end of the Initial Term, this Agreement and all applicable addenda shall renew automatically, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties. Thereafter, this Agreement and all applicable addenda shall automatically renew for successive periods of one (1) year on each anniversary of the Effective Date without any additional action by either party. After the Initial Term, either party may terminate this Agreement and the licenses granted hereunder or any applicable addendum at any time by giving thirty (30) days prior written notice to the other party. This Agreement and all applicable addenda shall terminate automatically if Reseller is liquidated or dissolved, or suffers a receiver or trustee to be appointed for it, or makes a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors or institutes or has instituted against it any proceedings under any law relating to bankruptcy or relief of debtors, and such filing is not dismissed or resolved within sixty (60) days. Termination of this Agreement shall not relieve Reseller of its obligation to pay for any outstanding invoices or for Data or related services provided up until termination, or after termination for work in progress still to be completed at Reseller’s request. In the event of a termination by Reseller in accordance with the terms hereof, Reseller shall not be entitled to a refund of all or any portion of any fees or charges paid to AccuData or any of its Vendors by Reseller hereunder, including, without limitation, any prepaid fees.

If Reseller materially breaches any term or condition of this Agreement, or any term or condition of an applicable addendum, and fails to cure that breach within fifteen (15) days after receiving written notice of the breach from AccuData, then AccuData may immediately terminate this Agreement, or, separately, any applicable addendum giving rise to the breach, by delivering written notice of such immediate termination to Reseller at any time following the end of the fifteen (15) day cure period.

- 3) Fees: Reseller shall pay AccuData the fees and charges indicated on order confirmation or any applicable addendum. All amounts shall be due and payable within thirty (30) days from the date of each invoice (each such date, the “Due Date”). Cancellations of orders may be subject to cancellation fees and/or reduced run charges as set forth on an order confirmation or any applicable addendum. Reseller’s obligation to pay the fees and charges set forth on each invoice is entirely independent of whether Reseller receives payment from its End Users. Any amounts paid after the Due Date shall bear interest at the rate of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month. In the event Reseller fails to make timely payment, Reseller will be responsible for all reasonable expenses (including attorney’s fees) incurred by AccuData in collecting such amounts. AccuData reserves the right to suspend performance of its obligations hereunder (or under any other agreement with Reseller) in the event Reseller fails to make timely payment hereunder or under any other agreement with AccuData. Upon termination of this Agreement or any applicable addendum by either party for any reason, any amounts owed by Reseller to AccuData, shall become immediately due and payable. If such amounts are not paid within fifteen (15) days of termination, the amount due shall accrue interest, calculated from the termination date, as set forth above.
- 4) Taxes: The charges for the Data or services currently do not include taxes. If AccuData is required to pay any federal, state, county or local sales, use or similar taxes based on the Data or services provided under this Agreement or applicable addendum, the taxes shall be itemized, billed to and paid by Reseller. Reseller shall not be responsible for taxes based on AccuData’s income, payroll taxes, and any other taxes pursuant to this Agreement.
- 5) Confidentiality: As used in this Agreement or any applicable addendum, “Confidential Information” means any and all: (a) AccuData proprietary or non-public information; (b) information concerning trade secrets; (c) software source or object code, technical, operational, or procedural documentation, technology, ideas, formulae, know how, procedures, products, services, algorithms and trade secrets embodied in the source code or object code, solution methodology or technology, and other deliverables; (d) information relating to AccuData’s business or other affairs; (e) AccuData’s financial, technical, operational and commercial information; (f) information regarding AccuData’s customers, potential customers, business plans or staff; (g) information related to the transaction contemplated by this Agreement or any applicable addendum; (h) information obtained by examination or review of information, books and/or records; (i) information obtained by examination, testing or analysis of any hardware, software or any component part of hardware or software; and (j) notes, analyses, compilations, studies or other documents prepared by either party or a party’s representatives based on, containing or otherwise reflecting its Confidential Information. Confidential Information may be disclosed in oral, written, graphic, electronic, machine recognizable and sample form, or otherwise obtained by Licensee in connection with the transaction contemplated by this Agreement. Confidential Information will not include information that: (i) is or becomes available to the public through no fault of Reseller or Reseller's End Users; (ii) is disclosed to Reseller by a third party who had lawfully obtained such information and without a breach of such third party's confidentiality obligations; (iii) is proven to be developed independently by Reseller; or (iv) AccuData has given written permission to Reseller to not keep confidential.

Reseller agrees that it will not disclose, in any form, oral, electronic or paper, Confidential Information by any means to any third party, and that Reseller will only use Confidential Information for the purposes of performance under this Agreement or any applicable addendum. Further, Reseller will limit access to the AccuData's Data, technology, and technology gateways to only those of its employees, independent contractors or agents with a need for access to perform under this Agreement or any applicable addendum. Reseller acknowledges that any breach by Reseller of these confidentiality obligations would cause substantial and irreparable damage to AccuData, that money damages would be inadequate remedy, and that AccuData will be entitled to an injunction, specific performance, or other equitable relief for breach of this Agreement without any requirement to post bond as a condition for that relief.

6) Restrictions and Conditions on Use of the Data:

- a) AccuData hereby grants a terminable, revocable, non-exclusive, non-transferrable, strictly limited license of the Data to Reseller. This license is revocable at any time by AccuData if Reseller violates any of the terms of this Agreement or any applicable addendum. The Data furnished to Reseller may be licensed to its End Users in connection with their own marketing programs, and for no other purpose. The Data is to be used for the list rental purposes and project(s), or as may be otherwise specified in any applicable addendum only, and unless otherwise specified within the order confirmation for the specific project, is for one-time use only. Any Data ordered by Reseller may be used for marketing programs by mail, telemarketing, mobile marketing or email or for database analysis only. All right, title and interest in the Data will remain the property of AccuData or its licensors, and no right, interest in or title to any Data is sold, conveyed or otherwise transferred to Reseller, End Users or any third party. Reseller is obligated by this Agreement to ensure that its End Users are made aware that no right, interest in, or title to any Data is passed to End Users under this Agreement or any applicable addendum.
- b) Reseller hereby agrees and will cause its End Users to agree that their marketing materials and solicitations will not make reference to any selection criteria or presumed knowledge regarding the intended recipient of such solicitation, and must be in good taste and of the highest quality.
- c) Reseller agrees that no list or other data will be copied, duplicated, transferred, disclosed or retained after the permitted one-time rental use, unless otherwise specified in any applicable addendum or in any written order confirmation at the time of purchase.
- d) Reseller will comply with all state and federal breach notification laws in connection with any of the unauthorized access to or loss of Data that is under Reseller's or Reseller's End User's control. Notwithstanding for the foregoing, Reseller will immediately notify AccuData of any unauthorized access to or loss of Data that is under Reseller's or Reseller's End User's control. Reseller will indemnify AccuData for all third-party claims that result from unauthorized access to or loss of Data that is under Reseller's or Reseller's End User's control.
- e) Reseller acknowledges and agrees that it may not use or permit the use of the Data in connection with the preparation, publication, cleaning or maintenance of any directory of any nature. Reseller will not use or permit the use of the Data for compiling, enhancing, verifying, supplementing, adding to or detracting from any mailing list, geographic or trade directories, business directories, classified directories, classified advertising, or other compilation of information which is sold, rented, published, or provided to a third party. Reseller will not use or permit use of the Data for generating any statistical information which is sold, rented, published, furnished or in any manner provided to a third party, or use or permit the use of the Data in connection with individual credit, employment or insurance applications.
- f) Reseller agrees that it will not use or permit the use of the Data in violation of any federal, state, local, or international law, rule, or regulation or for any unlawful purpose, and will comply with the Direct Marketing Association's Ethical Use and Fair Information Practices Guidelines. Reseller agrees to comply and cause its End Users to comply with any and all current and future federal, state, local and international laws concerning use of the Data, telephone solicitations and marketing, and the transmission of facsimiles and email, including but not limited to, the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, the CAN-SPAM Act of 2003, Canada's Anti-Spam Legislation of 2014, Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC") Telemarketing Sales Rule, and any other existing or future FTC rules and any enforcing regulations related to the foregoing. Reseller understands that any person violating such laws, rules or regulations may be subject to substantial civil and criminal penalties, for each transmission of any unsolicited facsimile or other information. Reseller acknowledges that the U.S. Federal government, certain states and self-regulatory bodies may each have restrictions on telemarketing activities, including, but not limited to, permitting a telephone subscriber to give public notice that such subscriber does not wish to receive sales solicitation telephone calls. Due to the varying publication dates of such notices, AccuData disclaims any warranty, express or implied, that the names and telephone numbers of all such subscribers have been identified on or deleted from any Data or other list ordered by Reseller. Further, Reseller agrees that it will fully indemnify AccuData for any claims, actions, damages, fees or costs related to any breach or violation by Reseller or its End Users of any of the acts, regulations or guidelines set forth in this Section 6.

- g) Reseller understands and warrants that it and its End Users will comply with the rules relating to any Do-Not-Call Registry promulgated by federal, state, foreign, international or self-regulatory bodies (such registries and lists collectively, the “DNC Registries”), specifically including, but not limited to, those rules that:
- i) Require all sellers who initiate, or cause a telemarketer to initiate, an outbound telephone call that is not otherwise exempt, to pay the appropriate fees for any DNC Registries;
 - ii) Require all telemarketers who initiate an outbound telephone call, that is not otherwise exempt on behalf of a seller, to ensure that the seller has paid all appropriate fees for any DNC Registries; and
 - iii) Require any company performing scrubbing of any DNC Registries on behalf of a seller to ensure that it is scrubbing the calling lists against that seller’s and only that seller’s version(s) of the DNC Registries.
- h) Reseller hereby certifies that it and its End Users will use the information gathered from the DNC Registries solely in compliance with the provisions of any applicable acts, guidelines or regulatory or self-regulatory body or otherwise to prevent telephone calls to telephone numbers on the registry.
- i) DNC MANAGER Orders: Reseller acknowledges that in the event it orders DNC Manager scrubbing services through AccuData, the scrubbing services will be performed by an independent vendor and that such vendor provides a compliant list processing receipt regarding the accuracy of the scrubbing service. AccuData is not responsible for and makes no representation or warranty regarding the performance or accuracy of the scrubbing service and Reseller agrees that neither it nor its End Users shall have any recourse against AccuData in the event that the scrubbing services provided to Reseller are unsatisfactory, inaccurate or incomplete.
- j) RESIDENT OCCUPANT Orders: Reseller acknowledges and shall inform its End Users that in the event it orders RESIDENT OCCUPANT data or services through AccuData, any data or services provided are performed by an independent vendor and that such vendor provides a separate warranty regarding the service or information provided. AccuData is not responsible for and makes no representation or warranty regarding the performance or accuracy of such services and data, and Reseller agrees that it shall have no recourse against AccuData in the event that the services and data provided to Reseller are unsatisfactory, inaccurate or incomplete. Reseller further acknowledges that any RESIDENT OCCUPANT list or other data is for one-time rental use only, unless otherwise specified within the order confirmation. Altering such data may affect the postage rates. Reseller agrees that no RESIDENT OCCUPANT list or other data will be copied, duplicated, transferred, disclosed or retained after the permitted one-time rental use. Reseller is prohibited from and shall provide in all of its Customer Agreements that the Customers are prohibited from (i) commingling the RESIDENT OCCUPANT Data with its own database or information from a third party, (ii) using or permitting use of the RESIDENT OCCUPANT Data to “benchmark” it against files offered by other suppliers for third party use, (iii) voluntarily producing any of the RESIDENT OCCUPANT Data in any legal proceeding, (iv) obtaining Computerized Delivery Sequencing (CDS) qualification or equivalent, (v) selectively returning individual addresses or components, (vi) obtaining or granting any right of ownership, (vii) assigning, leasing or transferring the RESIDENT OCCUPANT Data or any portion of it in any manner not expressly authorized by this Agreement and any attempt to do so shall be void, and (viii) performing any type of address, street, street number or lookup or directory assistance type of applications or seeking information relating to neighbors of a particular name or address. In addition, Reseller shall not provide to any Customer or any other party, all or substantially all of the RESIDENT OCCUPANT Data.
- k) Infogroup, Inc. Orders: Reseller acknowledges and shall inform its End Users that in the event it orders Infogroup Inc. data or services through AccuData, any data or services provided are performed by an independent vendor and that such vendor provides a separate warranty regarding the service or data. AccuData is not responsible for and makes no representation or warranty regarding the performance or accuracy of such services or data, and Reseller agrees that neither it nor its End Users shall have any recourse against AccuData in the event that the services or data provided to Reseller are unsatisfactory, inaccurate or incomplete. Infogroup Inc. does not guarantee that the Information meets the requirements of any applicable local, state, federal or international law, rule or regulation related to the usage of "Contact Information" (e.g. names, phone and facsimile numbers, wireless devices, e-mail addresses and physical addresses), including, but not limited to, wireless suppression lists, wireless domain lists, commercial e-mail laws, telemarketing laws and “Do-Not-Call” lists. The Contact Information has not been obtained directly from the data subjects and the data subjects have not opted in or otherwise expressly consented to having their information sold for marketing purposes. Reseller also agrees that Infogroup, Inc.'s and its third party information providers aggregate liability, if any, for any and all losses or injuries to reseller arising out of any acts or omissions of Infogroup Inc. in connection with a particular order or service, regardless of the cause of the loss or injury (including negligence) and regardless of the nature of the legal or equitable right claimed to have been violated, shall never exceed the amount paid by reseller for the Information furnished pursuant to such order or service or $5000, whichever is greater, and you covenant and promise not to sue Infogroup, Inc. for an amount greater than such sum. Reseller may not use or permit the use of Information to "benchmark"

Infogroup, Inc.'s Business Marketing File against files offered by other suppliers or to generate any statistical or other derived output or commercial products based on the Information other than "counts" or "rate cards" provided to prospective customers. Without prior approval from Infogroup, Inc., reseller may not provide access to more than an aggregate of 500,000 records to any single end user in any single order or transaction. Reseller agrees that orders and transactions may not be engineered or partitioned into smaller quantities to avoid the foregoing consent requirement. Reseller further acknowledges that any Infogroup, Inc. list or other data is for one-time rental use only, unless otherwise specified in any applicable addendum or in any written order confirmation at the time of purchase.

Reseller is prohibited from selling the Infogroup, Inc.'s Licensed Business Data to any End Users who are considered a Direct Competitor. AccuData is not responsible for and makes no representation or warranty regarding the performance or accuracy of such services or data, and Reseller agrees that neither it nor its End Users shall have any recourse against AccuData in the event that the services or data provided to Reseller are unsatisfactory, inaccurate or incomplete. Reseller further acknowledges that any ACXIOM list or other data is for one-time rental use only. Reseller agrees that no ACXIOM list or other data will be copied, duplicated, transferred, disclosed or retained after the permitted one-time rental use. The ACXIOM data may not be used for building or integrating such data into any other database. Reseller acknowledges and agrees that any such data or lists shall at all times remain the intellectual property of ACXIOM, and that neither Reseller nor its End Users or any other third parties have any proprietary rights whatsoever in the data or lists.
- m) Restrictions: In addition to the restrictions set forth above in this Section 6, in no event may Reseller use or permit the use of any Data to advertise, sell, or exchange any products or services that involve sexual paraphernalia; drug paraphernalia; pornographic materials; weapons; credit repair services or other illegal or illicit activities. Reseller agrees, for any prospecting use of the Data not involving Reseller's house files, which include a designation that an individual consumer has opted out of receiving marketing solicitations, to honor such election and cause its End Users to honor such election. In the event that Reseller or its End Users does not honor such election, AccuData may terminate this Agreement and any licenses hereunder immediately and without further liability to Reseller or any other party, and Reseller agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless AccuData, DNC MANAGER, COMPACT, INFOGROUP, or ACXIOM, as the case may be, for any claims arising out of any failure to honor such election.
- 7) Move Update Standards: Reseller hereby represents, warrants and agrees that it and its End Users will comply with all current and future USPS rules, regulations and standards and that all mailings entered on November 23, 2008 or thereafter must be updated with an approved or alternate method of address correction.
- 8) Email Data and Data Related Services:
 - a) Email Data for Append, Retention and Prospecting Campaigns. All Prospect Data is provided for one time use, unless otherwise specified in any applicable addendum or in any written order confirmation at the time of purchase, with the exception of email appends to Reseller or its End User files which can be used for unlimited usage within a twelve (12) month period without limitation. Reseller and its End User understand and agree that AccuData makes no guarantee as to the results of any campaign and that results may vary based on the offer, the target audience and other variables. Reseller understands and agrees that because email data is self-reported and is based upon the information received upon sign up, AccuData makes no guarantees as to the integrity, accuracy, or reliability of any email data or records provided.

No copy of the Data, in any form whatsoever, may be retained by the Reseller, End User, and/or mailer or any person or firm retained by the Reseller or its End User and/or mailer, for purposes of processing names for mailing or usage longer than one week after the mailing, without the prior consent of AccuData.

No part of the provided Data, including but not limited to, postal, email, phone, additional selector data elements, and specialty files, can be used to enhance, modify or integrate with any other list owned by Reseller or its End User for any reason whatsoever without the express written approval of AccuData. "Multi-buyers" or names that are derived from the Data (i.e. postal or email list) and another rented, exchanged or owned list may be mailed one time for each time the name appears, provided that the Reseller, its End User, and/or mailer has paid all parties involved, full rental fees for each mailing occurrence.

AccuData represents and warrants that any prospect email addresses or email addresses appended to a data file used in the performance of the Services has opted in to receive commercial emails transmitted on behalf of third parties.

- b) Email Deployment Services. All email messages sent on behalf of Reseller or its End User shall be subject to review and approval by AccuData. AccuData reserves the right to reject any message for any reason at their discretion. AccuData will add opt-out verbiage to Reseller or its End Users message and manage opt outs of email deployments on behalf of Reseller. Reseller and/or its End User understand and agree that AccuData shall not be held liable for delivery or blocking issues and that no make-goods, reblasts, credits or refunds will be issued.

RESELLER ACKNOWLEDGES AND UNDERSTANDS AND SHALL INFORM ITS END USER THAT ACCUDATA DOES NOT WARRANT THAT THE SERVICES WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED OR ERROR FREE AND THAT ACCUDATA MAY OCCASIONALLY EXPERIENCE "HARD OUTAGES" DUE TO INTERNET DISRUPTIONS THAT ARE NOT WITHIN THEIR CONTROL. ANY SUCH HARD OUTAGE SHALL NOT BE CONSIDERED BREACH OF THIS AGREEMENT.

Retention of Email Deployment: If Reseller or its End User are deploying an email marketing list not purchased from AccuData; Reseller and/or its End User represent and warrant that the list contains fully verified and opted in information. If the list is supplied to Reseller from their End User, Reseller represents and warrants that they have examined the terms and conditions under which the addresses were originally compiled and determine that all recipients have in fact opted-in to the type of mailing list the End User intends to operate. Lists must be used for their original purpose. If requested by AccuData, Reseller or its End User shall fully disclose all terms and conditions of each and every email marketing list. Reseller and or its End User(s) understand and agree not to provide or market to emails of Canadian origin in compliance with Canada's Anti-Spam Legislation of 2014 (CASL), unless Reseller and or End User can provide proof of expressed consent from these email subscribers prior to sending the commercial email. Reseller or its End User(s) therefore agree to accept liability and not to hold AccuData or its third party suppliers liable for any fines or violations in compliance with CASL email communications.

- c) Compliance with CAN-SPAM: Each party shall comply with the provisions of CAN-SPAM Act in performing their respective obligations hereunder, including but not limited to, the multiple sender rule, the use of an opt-out mechanism honored within 10 days and valid for 30 days, the use of clear and accurate header and subject line information, and the use of a physical mailing address.

9) Accuracy of Data and Limitation of Liability:

- a) AccuData provides Data to Reseller from recognized industry compilers of telephone directories and various other sources "AS IS AND WITH ALL FAULTS". AccuData makes no representation or warranty, express or implied, regarding the accuracy or completeness of the Data to be delivered, results to be obtained with the Data, or that any lists in the Data have been scrubbed against any DNC Registries.
- b) Reseller acknowledges it is obligated to inform Reseller's End Users that the Data provided by AccuData and its third party vendors will contain a degree of error. Reseller also acknowledges that the prices that AccuData charges for the Data are based, in part, upon AccuData's expectation that the risk of any damages, claims, loss or injury that might occur will be borne by Reseller or Reseller's End Users. For these reasons, Reseller agrees that it is responsible for determining that the Data is sufficiently accurate for Reseller's and its End User's purposes. Industry guidelines indicate 7-10% is an acceptable undeliverable rate, and 15% is an acceptable disconnect rate. These rates are merely guidelines. The actual rates will vary and there is no guarantee that the undeliverable and disconnect rates related to the Data will fall within these rates. Reseller acknowledges and agrees that it will not be entitled to any refund and will not withhold payment for the Data in the event that the Data is inaccurate or the undeliverable and disconnect rates falls outside the industry guideline rates.
- c) The Data, including, but not limited to, including postal, epostal, and email records, names and addresses are not guaranteed as deliverable, but AccuData makes best efforts to meet or exceed industry standards for postal deliverability. AccuData makes no representation or guarantee as to the conversion results of the mailing.
- d) RESELLER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT THE DATA IS NOT THE PRODUCT OF AN INDEPENDENT COMPILATION OR INVESTIGATION PROMPTED BY OR ON BEHALF OF RESELLER, BUT IS UPDATED AND REVISED INDEPENDENTLY ON A PERIODIC BASIS. RESELLER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT EVERY BUSINESS DECISION TO SOME DEGREE REPRESENTS AN ASSUMPTION OF RISK AND THAT ACCUDATA AND ITS THIRD PARTY LICENSORS OR SUPPLIERS OF DATA, DO NOT AND WILL NOT UNDERWRITE THAT RISK, IN ANY MANNER WHATSOEVER. RESELLER THEREFORE AGREES THAT IT OR RESELLER'S END USERS WILL NOT HOLD ACCUDATA OR ITS THIRD PARTY SUPPLIERS LIABLE FOR ANY LOSS OR INJURY ARISING OUT OF OR CAUSED, IN WHOLE OR IN PART, BY ACCUDATA'S OR ITS THIRD PARTY SUPPLIERS NEGLIGENCE OR OTHER ACTS OR OMISSIONS IN PROCURING, COMPILING, COLLECTING, INTERPRETING, REPORTING, COMMUNICATING, OR DELIVERING THE DATA.

FURTHER, RESELLER AGREES THAT IN NO EVENT SHALL ACCUDATA OR ITS THIRD PARTY SUPPLIERS BE LIABLE FOR ANY LOSS OR DAMAGE OF ANY KIND OR CHARACTER (INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, LOSS OF DATA OR INFORMATION, SPECIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, PUNITIVE, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES) THAT RESELLER, ANY END USER OR OTHER CLIENT OF RESELLER, OR OTHER PARTY, SUFFERS OR INCURS ARISING OUT OF ANY ACTS OR OMISSIONS OF ACCUDATA OR ITS THIRD PARTY SUPPLIERS IN CONNECTION WITH ANYTHING TO BE DONE OR FURNISHED HEREUNDER, REGARDLESS OF THE CAUSE OF THE LOSS, DAMAGE OR INJURY AND REGARDLESS OF THE NATURE OF THE LEGAL RIGHT CLAIMED TO HAVE BEEN VIOLATED, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES, ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR THE DELIVERY OR USE, OF THE DATA, REGARDLESS OF THE FORM OF ACTION.

- e) FOR ANY DAMAGES CAUSED WHOLLY OR IN PART BY ACCUDATA'S INABILITY TO FULFILL ITS RESPONSIBILITIES HEREUNDER, ACCUDATA'S SOLE LIABILITY SHALL BE TO RETURN TO RESELLER THE AMOUNT PAID FOR THE DATA. IN NO EVENT SHALL ACCUDATA'S LIABILITY EXCEED THE TOTAL AMOUNT PAID TO ACCUDATA BY RESELLER HEREUNDER.
- f) ACCUDATA PROVIDES NO WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.
- 10) Indemnity: In addition to any of the remedies provided in this Agreement, Reseller agrees to defend, indemnify and hold AccuData its parent, affiliates, shareholders, directors, officers, employees and agents harmless from and against any and all claims, damages, losses, judgments, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees) sustained, suffered, paid or incurred by AccuData, its agents, officers, directors, employees or affiliates as a result of the breach of any warranty, obligation, undertaking, representation or agreement made by Reseller in this Agreement or any applicable addendum, or arising out of any violation of law by Reseller or its End Users or out of third party claims stemming from any act or omission by Reseller or End Users in connection with this Agreement or any applicable addendum. AccuData will give Reseller prompt notice of any claim or action alleging facts which, if true, would constitute a breach of any of Reseller's obligations under this Agreement or applicable addendum.
- 11) Approval of Reseller or End User Materials: AccuData reserves the right to require Reseller to obtain AccuData's advance approval of any material which Reseller or an End User proposes to mail or distribute and Reseller acknowledges that it may not distribute the Data to any third party without the prior written approval of AccuData.
- 12) Reseller Responsibilities: Upon receipt, Reseller shall inspect the Data for compliance with Reseller's selection criteria. If verifiable errors are reported to AccuData within thirty (30) days, AccuData will reprocess the order without charge.
- 13) End User Certification, Requirements and Restrictions:
- a) As a condition to this license grant, Reseller agrees to obtain the necessary authorizations and agreements from End Users to ensure End User's use of the Data is in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. Reseller is expected to require a separate executed agreement for such terms; AccuData reserves the right to enforce such agreement directly with the End User. AccuData's Click Through License can be found online at www.acculeads.com or may be requested from AccuData by Reseller and embed in the Data to be licensed to an End User. No distribution or license of the Data by Reseller shall be made except pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or, if applicable, the Click Through License or other form of license necessary to access the Data. Reseller agrees that it will bind its End Users the terms of this Agreement, or such click through or other license.
- b) Reseller shall ensure that every copy of the Data bears such legends or restrictive notices as AccuData may require to protect its intellectual property rights to the Data. Reseller shall promptly notify AccuData if Reseller becomes aware of any illegal or unauthorized use or copying of the Data. Reseller will reasonably assist AccuData in taking all steps AccuData, in its sole discretion, believes to be necessary to defend AccuData's rights in the Data.
- c) Reseller shall be directly and solely responsible for any assistance needed by End Users with respect to the Data.
- d) Reseller shall be solely responsible for the billing and collecting of all license fees from its End Users. Within fifteen (15) business days of the receipt of written demand from AccuData, Reseller shall (a) deliver a report to AccuData, in writing, indicating the Data licensed or otherwise provided to End Users. Reseller shall maintain accurate books and records in connection with activity under this Agreement for the term of this Agreement and for two (2) years thereafter. Such records shall include copies of all executed sale agreements. AccuData, or its representative, may audit the relevant books and records of Reseller during the term of this Agreement and for two (2) years thereafter to ensure compliance with the terms of this Agreement. Any such audit shall be conducted during regular business hours at Reseller's offices and shall not unreasonably interfere with Reseller's business activities.
- e) Reseller agrees not to solicit any customers of AccuData, including any End Users of the Data not originated by the Reseller, for a period of three (3) years after termination or expiration of this Agreement.
- f) Reseller may not transfer the Data to another End User upon termination of the previous End User's use of the Data.

- g) Reseller and End Users are prohibited from making any modifications, enhancements or adaptations to the Data, reverse engineering, decompiling, disassembling the Data, creating any derivative works based on the Data or embedding the Data in any other product, unless expressly permitted in a separate writing signed by the parties hereto.
- 14) Changes in Law: If any existing law or regulation is changed or if any new law or regulation is enacted that affects the Data, its use or services provided under this Agreement, AccuData and/or Reseller may modify this Agreement to the extent reasonably necessary to ensure that use of the Data will be in full compliance with such laws and regulations and AccuData may modify the pricing applicable to the Data.
- 15) Changes to this Agreement: AccuData may make changes to this Agreement from time to time for security, commercial or legal reasons. Such modifications and additional terms and conditions will be effective immediately and incorporated into this Agreement. When these changes are made, a notification will be posted on our website at <http://www.accudata.com/legal-revisions/> along with a copy of the current standard Agreement.
- 16) Assignment: This Agreement is personal to Reseller and neither party shall cause or permit any voluntary or involuntary assignment, sublicense or transfer, by operation of law or otherwise, of this Agreement or its rights or obligations under this Agreement to any third party without the prior written consent of the other party, except that AccuData may assign or transfer this Agreement without Reseller's consent (a) to a parent, subsidiary, affiliate or similarly related entity, (b) in connection with a merger, acquisition, reorganization or consolidation, or (c) in connection with the sale of Supplier's corporate stock or assets.
- 17) Independent Contractors: Nothing in this Agreement or any applicable addendum shall be construed to create a partnership, joint venture, or agency relationship between the parties. - 21) Severability: If any provision of this Agreement or applicable addendum is held invalid or unenforceable after hearing or proceedings before an independent tribunal, such provision shall be deemed deleted from this Agreement or applicable addendum and the remaining provisions of this Agreement or applicable addendum shall continue in full force and effect so long as the deleted provision does not eliminate or otherwise substantially change the economic benefits of this Agreement or any applicable addendum to either party or significantly impair the rights or increase the obligations of either party. The parties shall make good faith efforts to replace each such deleted provision by a valid and enforceable provision mutually agreeable to the parties.
